Doric Aviation Wins GTF Award Again

On 23 January 2017, Doric was recognized for the Best Aviation Asset-Backed Securities Deal for Europe, the Middle East and Africa in 2016. The award was conferred by Global Transport Finance, an international finance magazine which reports on transportation finance markets.

Sibylle Pähler, Doric managing shareholder, was presented with the award at a gala event in the historic Merchant Taylors' Hall in London.

Global Transport Finance recognized Doric for the financing structure of the Floreat Aviation Portfolio. The aviation portfolio was largely financed by issuing classic and Shari'a compliant notes which are listed on the Euro MTF of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange. The UK Floreat Merchant Bank placed the notes with private and institutional investors.

The award underlines Doric's continued success at structuring innovative, tailored aircraft investments for institutional investors.
