Tanja Kisselbach Appointed MD of Doric AIFM

Tanja Kisselbach, new Managing Director of Doric Investment GmbH

Offenbach – Tanja Kisselbach has been appointed managing director of Doric Investment GmbH, the Doric Group's licensed AIFM (alternative investment fund manager), where she will be responsible for risk management. Over the past 11 years Kisselbach has held a number of senior roles at the Doric Group. Most recently, she was responsible for advancing the fields of compliance and risk management.

Having obtained her degree in Business Studies, Tanja Kisselbach gained several years' experience as the managing director of Citigroup's German fund administration firm.

With Kisselbach's appointment, Bernd Reber, a Doric Group founder and shareholder, has stepped down from his position as the Doric AIFM's managing director. As managing director of the group's holding company, Reber will take responsibility for the group-wide management of risk. It is this area that he will oversee in his new role as a member of the Doric AIFM's supervisory board.
