

Doric Receives 2 GTF Awards for Remarketing of A380

On 31 January 2019, Doric received the Global Transport Finance (GTF) award for the “Aircraft Remarketing Deal of the Year” for the first second-hand A380 operating lease with Hi Fly. Furthermore, Doric received the “Daedalus Award” for “Returning the A380 to the Skies”. The award ceremony took place during a gala event at the Merchant Taylors’ Hall in London.

With the awarded transaction Doric closed the first ever secondary market re-lease for an Airbus A380. 11 years after the first A380’s maiden commercial flight, the lease agreement with the Portuguese wet lease operator Hi Fly began in July 2018 and has a term of nearly 6 years. Doric’s Asset Management was able to arrange a direct handover of the aircraft from the previous operator to Hi Fly.

GTF is a leading publication in the transportation finance sector. For over 17 years GTF has awarded the most noteworthy transactions of the year across the entire transport finance sector.
