Quadoro Doric Makes Brussels Purchase

Offenbach, Germany – As the portfolio manager for the open-ended special real estate AIF Vescore Sustainable Real Estate Europe, Quadoro Doric has acquired a new office construction project. The offices are to be part of a larger building complex in the Leopold district of Brussels. Previously, this space was occupied by the Greek embassy.

The sellers are subsidiaries of the Royal BAM Group, a Dutch construction group. The developer is the Belgian real estate company Kairos. The transaction was brokered by Cushman & Wakefield.

Completion of the property – with 9 upper and 2 lower storeys and 3,000 m<sup>2</sup> of lettable space – is scheduled for late 2017.

Axel Wünnenberg, Managing Director at Quadoro Doric, commented on the acquisition: “We were won over by several aspects, among them, stable rents in the vicinity, the limited supply of properties in the Leopold district and the professionalism of the parties involved.”

Vescore’s sustainability expert, Klaus Kämpf, noted that decisive factors for the acquisition were the convenient location, the planned BREEAM certification, and the repurposeability of the finished building.
