Doric Signs Cooperation Agreement with KTB in Seoul

Offenbach, Germany/Seoul, Korea – The Doric Group – together with its real estate specialist Quadoro - has signed an exclusive cooperation agreement with the Korean financial services provider KTB Investment & Securities (KTB). The companies will cooperate on cross-border transport and real estate transactions.

Founded in 1981, KTB Investment & Securities Co. Ltd. has been a leader in the Korean investment industry for more than 30 years, providing specialized financial services. The cooperation with Doric/Quadoro means that KTB can expand its range of alternative investment fund solutions in Europe, particularly for the aviation and real estate sectors.

Bernd Reber, founding partner and Global Head of Fund and Risk Management of the Doric Group, commented: "We are delighted to expand our business activities in Asia and to create further investment opportunities in the European market through our cooperation with KTB in line with our sustainable corporate strategy".

In May 2019, Quadoro sold the landmark "T-Center" building in Vienna, Austria to a consortium of South Korean investors led by KTB and continues to be responsible for the asset management of the property (see press release).
